Figure 4: Composition of daily menus: Average composition of daily menus compared to their average efficiency using model 2. The average composition was calculated by assigning 25% to each meal. E.g., an average of 50% vegetarian means that two vegetarian meals were consumed. Menus were sorted according to their ENE before averages were calculated.